DUBUQUE, IOWA, September 23, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Holly Flood, Senior Partner and Fine Arts Specialist for IMPACT Arts & Business Consulting, LLC, has been recognized by Worldwide Who's Who for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in artistic consultation.

Ms. Flood has seven years of experience in the arts, having recently become a senior partner and fine arts specialist for IMPACT Arts & Business Consulting, LLC. Over the years, she has established herself as an expert in exhibition and arts event coordination, as well as graphic design. On a daily basis, she helps her clients put together portfolios and select the artwork to be used in those portfolios. She also revises documents, and finds the best ways to market products. IMPACT Arts & Business Consulting, LLC is an arts consulting company that provides artist representation, promotion artists' artwork for sale, and advancement of artists' careers. The company also provides professional consultation and management services, as well as exhibition coordination and independent curatorial services.

Through IMPACT, Ms. Flood works with artists in the visual and performing arts. During the past year, she has consulted with artists and helped them secure exhibition opportunities, apply for and receive awards and commissions for their artwork, and coordinate exhibitions and performances. In the performing arts area, she has secured bookings for the one-woman show, "The Stupid Economy" at venues in the Midwest, the San Diego Fringe Festival and the United Solo Festival in New York City. She attributes her success to her dedication, hard work, and a love for the arts.

Ms. Flood received a bachelor's degree in studio art from The University of Iowa in 2004. In 2005, she studied American art history at Sotheby's Institute of Art in New York City. In years to come, Ms. Flood plans to grow the business, and expand it to include working with startup companies.
