

TMS Music Group Rapper, Lungz Prepares To Release New "Inebriation" Project

Written by Australian Business

CHICAGO, IL, September 25, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Born and raised on the north side of Chicago, Lungz has been establishing himself in the music industry as one of the most consistent, all around artists around, with vivid lyrics that paint a picture, but are still very relatable. His recent project, "Dream Killaz" received production from top producers such as Don Cannon and the Justice League, and over the years he has garnered the attention of his peers, receiving co-signs from established artists such as Joe Budden and Fred The Godson. Now, after recently signing with his current label, TMS Music Group, he looks to make a lasting imprint on his fans with the coming release of his latest project.

Lungz will debut his new "Inebriation" project September 23, 2013. Representing TMS Music Group, Lungz, one of Chicago's standout MC's, having just released his latest single, "Northside Get The Money", is preparing for the near release of his next project, Inebriation. Four projects into his career, the north side native is about to release possibly his finest work to date, due to the creative control he acknowledges allowed to him by his label.

Inebriation is due in less than a week and will definitely be worth the wait. Be sure to visit <http://lungzmusic.com> for updates regarding the project. Also, be sure to check out the latest single from Inebriation, "Northside Get The Money": <http://goo.gl/xXnb0V>

All press inquiries regarding Lungz please contact: Briahna Gatlin, b.gatlin@swankpublishing.com, 312.480.8700 Justin Dukes, j.dukes@swankpublishing.com

Swank Publishing is a public relations Company

Briahna Gatlin Email: b.gatlin@swankpublishing.com