LOS ANGELES, CA, September 25, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Bringing a fresh and meaningful message to the music industry, Sarah Blaine is an American singer/songwriter from Los Angeles, Ca. born December 23, 1990. Blaine was immediately introduced to the entertainment world, born to parents who had successful careers in the industry, she believes and is inspired by the idea that "we get to choose whether to drift through life blindly or to find a powerful hope within ourselves even in our most trying times. We all face temptation. We all have fears. We all have self-doubt. It is up to each one of us to determine whether we will succumb to these energies or use the power of our own will to lay claim to our dreams." Performing was second nature to Sarah from a very early age - acting in commercials and television shows from age three, singing for audiences of hundreds from age four, and then adding thirteen years of dance training. Discovering her true passion for singing and performing, Sarah Blaine has fine-tuned her skills and never missed the opportunity to advance in her accomplishments.

Blaine took to expressing herself via song lyrics and writing during her high school years and upon graduation in 2009, was absolutely positive that she had to pursue her dream of making a lifetime career in music. Blaine started working with some of the most highly sought after vocal coaches and musicians in the business, as well as collaborating with producers and songwriters who regularly contract with major label artists. With a vocal range that stretches almost four full octaves, she has earned high praise from those who hear her and those who hire her.

Very excited to release her first official single, "Dancing with the Devil," on September 24, 2013, Blaine relays the important reminder of one's strength, one's light, and one's ability to dance with the devil without taking him home. "Dance with the Devil" is inspired by Napoleon Hill's novel, "Outwitting the Devil," who wrote about how to "outwit" temptation and create true success in one's life. Hill professed that an individual with desire, faith and persistence can reach great heights by eliminating negative energy and thoughts and focusing on the greater goals in hand. Blaine pulls this message together through a catchy melody and thunderous beat.
