

BIRMINGHAM, ENGLAND, September 25, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Idox Information Solutions is pleased to announce that it will be attending the World of Learning Conference & Exhibition on 1 and 2 October 2013 at the NEC in Birmingham.

Backed by 28 years of funding experience, Idox Information Solutions offers a range of benefitting the private and public sectors, from funding portals to training and compliance solutions.

Open 4 Training & Development is a bespoke funding portal that offers your staff and their families the information needed for them to research funding opportunity for their ongoing development, ensuring that you fulfil your caring commitment as an employer as well as bring quantifiable benefits to your business.

Through our Interactive Dialogues suite of products, Idox offer a range of custom and off-the-shelf e-learning products that can help you ensure that your staff are compliant with laws such as the Data Protection Act, Anti-Money Laundering, and the UK Bribery Act.

Moreover, Idox offers a range of training courses aimed to help those who seek to develop their skills in applying for funding, from absolute beginners funding courses to in-depth topics such as effective tender writing.

World of Learning is an essential annual conference and exhibition featuring the latest in the areas of Learning and Development. In its 21st year, the event has over 120 exhibitors and attracts visitors from all areas of the education sector.

For a live demonstration of any of the Idox learning solutions, visit us at stand E70 and leave us a business card for the chance to win a Kindle Paperwhite!

Notes to editors: • As Europe's leading grants and policy information providers, Idox Information Solutions presents research, information publishing and technology solutions for business, public and community sector organisations. Full information is available from: <http://is.idoxgroup.com>. • As an Idox company, Interactive Dialogues is an established supplier of on-line corporate communications and compliance services, providing effective solutions to support all associated areas of an organisation - from HR and legal departments to finance, IT and marketing. Further information is available from: <http://www.interactivedialogues.com>