Written by Australian Business

CHARLOTTE, NC, September 25, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Home Management LLC, a Charlotte-based property association management firm, has announced that Daisha Taylor Weathers has joined the company as an assistant property manager. In this new role, Weathers will be responsible for managing many of the day-to-day activities of Home Management's 25 properties and coordinating appointments with third-party vendors. She has three years of management experience and previously worked as an office manager with a heating and air company. Involved in her community, Weathers volunteers at Kannapolis Youth Sports. She resides in Kannapolis, N.C., with her husband and son.

Home Management's portfolio consists of 25 properties including upscale residential condominiums and commercial associations. Their services include leasing, property management, maintenance and communications. They strive to provide superior association management services to communities across North and South Carolina.

QUOTES: "We are excited to have Daisha join Home Management as assistant property manager," said Buffie Miller, Home Management LLC vice president. "Her experience is an invaluable asset to our company that will allow us to provide the best possible service to the properties we serve."
