

Dentist In Boise Focuses On Treating The Entire Family

Written by Australian Business

BOISE CITY, ID, September 25, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Dr. Scott Hayhurst, dentist in Boise, focuses on treatment for children of all ages and adults. Family dentistry is similar to general dentistry, as it provides services related to the general maintenance of oral hygiene and tooth health.

The American Dental Association (ADA) recommends that patients visit their family dentist for a checkup a minimum of two times each year. Such checkups should provide routine or deep cleanings to eliminate plaque buildup and prevent tooth decay. Dr. Hayhurst, a Boise dentist, is pleased to offer dental health care treatments for the whole family to ensure proper dental health care is maintained.

"Dentistry involves the prevention, diagnosis and treatment of a wide variety of conditions, disorders and diseases affecting the teeth, gums and maxillofacial region of the body. I am happy to offer general and family dentistry services for the whole family to ensure everyone in your family has a healthy, happy smile," said Dr. Scott Hayhurst, Boise, ID dentist.

This full-service general and family dentistry is owned and operated by Dr. Scott Hayhurst and his professional team of dental specialists. Services and treatments offered include veneers, take-home and in-office teeth whitening, dental implants and Boise dentures, among others.

In addition to Dr. Hayhurst's all-in-one general and family practice, and comfortable office setting, this emergency dentist in Boise also recently launched an informative practice website to increase patient education and improve patient to practice communication. The easy to use website is rich in dental resources and online tools, including online appointment requesting, new patient registration forms, a before-and-after smile gallery and service descriptions.

Patients searching for a convenient, comfortable and experienced general and family dentist in Boise turn to Dr. Scott Hayhurst and his caring dental staff for all of their oral health care needs. Providing treatments for the whole family, it's easy to see why this Boise family dentist is the clear choice for any dental health need.
