WEST PALM BEACH, FL, September 25, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Hurricane Grill & Wings continues its national expansion with the opening of the concept's first restaurant in Georgia. The island-inspired restaurant introduces Johns Creek residents to its awarding-winning jumbo wings with over 30 sauces and rubs along with the perfect atmosphere to take a "flavor vacation." The new restaurant in Medlock Crossing Shopping Center features a private surf shack for get-togethers of up to 40 people, 17 televisions around the restaurant to make sure sports fans never miss a game and a great patio to enjoy great food and good weather.

Hurricane Grill & Wings invites customers to get a taste of its mouthwatering appetizers, flavorful wings and menu with an island twist, while enjoying tropical dining atmosphere both inside the restaurant. Hurricane Grill & Wings' extensive menu starts with savory appetizers such as Firecracker Shrimp and Fried Pickles. The restaurant also offers over 30 flavors of juicy, never frozen wings, Crispy Hurricane Chicken Sandwich available with any flavor sauce on the five category menu, 100 percent half-pound Angus Steak Burgers and a wide assortment of other entree options. Special handcrafted cocktails, wine and beer are available to sip along with the bold and flavorful dishes.

"This is a huge milestone for Hurricane Grill & Wings and we are excited to continue our growth," said Martin O'Dowd, President of Hurricane Grill & Wings. "We look forward to bringing our tropical twist and delicious food to Georgia and we're sure Hurricane Grill & Wings in Medlock Crossing Shopping Center will be a great dining option for local residents."

"Hurricane Grill & Wings is going to be a great addition to the community," said Jeremy Goldman, owner of Hurricane Grill & Wings Medlock Crossing. "It is the perfect place to catch the Falcons, Hawks and Braves games, enjoy a beer or spend some time with your family while enjoying some delicious wings."
