Meet Sarah Valentine

Ms. Valentine felt compelled to pursue her own dreams and inspire others

VICTORIA, AUSTRALIA, September 26, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Sarah Valentine, Owner and Director of Sarah Valentine Proprietary Limited and Founder and Director of Bellarine Business Women, has been recognized by Worldwide Who's Who for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in business development.

When her close friend died of cancer at the young age of 39, Ms. Valentine felt compelled to pursue her own dreams and inspire others. Recognizing how short and precious life is, she began working toward a career in business and life coaching, to aid others in achieving their personal and professional objectives. With an associate diploma in public relations, advertising and applied communication from Holmesglen Institute and a bachelor's degree in business and psychology in hand, Ms. Valentine completed coursework at The Coaching Institute in neurolinguistic programming and coaching. Upon completion of the degree, she founded Sarah Valentine Pty Ltd; a business coaching and consultancy company.

As owner and director of Sarah Valentine Proprietary Limited, Ms. Valentine works collaboratively with business owners around the world to assess strategic plans and implement organizational restructuring. She also utilizes the Geelong Business Circle, a non-competitive expert think-tank for entrepreneurs in various industries, to aid clients in gaining innovative ideas. Through business and professional coaching, Ms. Valentine has become successful in increasing revenue and profitability, establishing referral and networking opportunities, and providing an environment where clients can achieve their goals. Through Sarah Valentine Pty Ltd, she offers services in business assessment and reporting, profiling, training, and coaching. She conducts workshops and seminars, some of which last as long as three months, which assist business owners with corporate re-strategizing and goal setting. Proficient in behavioral profiling, marketing, and management, Ms. Valentine aspires to see her model of business circling become a national program. Named as a National Silver award winner by the Australian Centre for Leadership for sustaining women's empowerment in the community, Ms. Valentine founded Bellarine Business Women, a networking group, in 2011. Focused on networking, event production, and support for business development services, Bellarine Business Women provides assistance to clients in the Bellarine and Geelong regions of Australia. director, Ms. Valentine draws on her accreditation as a trainer and consultant when coordinating monthly events and functions for the company.

Targeting the local community of business professionals and entrepreneurs, Ms. Valentine brings together like-minded professionals who can support one another and foster the growth of each other's careers. Through brainstorming and challenging, she is able to succeed in achieving individual and group goals. With more than 20 years of professional expertise, Ms. Valentine intends to reach membership totals in excess of 250 within the next five years.

Ms. Valentines is a committee member for the Ocean Grove Business Association, Geelong Chamber of Commerce, and Bellarine Tourism Board. She is also charitably involved with Amy Gillet Foundation, as well as various breast cancer research organizations. Away from the demands of her work, she enjoys diving, visiting family, going to the park, reading, attending her children's extracurricular activities, and exploring new wineries and beaches.
