

CBTec Welcomes Alpinesoft IT Solutions As a Channel Partner

Written by Australian Business

DELHI, INDIA, September 26, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- CBTec, the company making waves in the education technology industry with its on line service Eliademy.com, is now expanding its collaboration network. To ensure a wider distribution of Eliademy, the company has launched a Partner Channel that allows enterprise software consultants to promote the service to their customers. Eliademy for Business, a learning Software as a Service (SaaS), will cost commercial organisations about 8 Euros per year per user.

Eliademy for Business offers organizations a cloud-based private learning environment that allows anyone within this private learning space to create, discover and join courses. Furthermore, HR managers or organization development personnel can utilize the analytics and reports on courses, tasks and people to track organizational development.

"Google App for Business customers can now use a reliable and good service made in Finland, the world's leading country in the field of education" stated Sotiris Makrygiannis, Founder and CEO of CBTec - the company behind Eliademy.com.

Alpinesoft IT Solutions established in the year 2000 in the USA began its India operations in the year 2010 with Resellership of Google Apps for Business. Since its inception in India Alpinesoft has become a premier partner of Google and has helped more than 70 customers in India setup their Google Apps accounts. Alpinesoft Management team has more than 70 years of experience between them. The vision of Alpinesoft is "Achieving customer satisfaction through the combined efforts of development and testing and executing the projects through dedicated workforce".

"We see Eliademy as an important part of our offerings. This product will help many institutions and corporates impart training to their students and employees with just a click of mouse" said Arvind Kanaujia, Director, Alpinesoft IT Solutions Pvt Ltd.

Eliademy is created by CBTec, a company founded by ex-Nokia MeeGo team who previously delivered all open source Nokia phones such as N900 and N9. Eliademy has been developed in Finland - world leader in education-together with best universities, educators, organizations and students.