ATLANTA, GA, September 26, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- The Atlanta granite countertops supplier, Premier Surfaces, wants to remind residents that granite does not have to be used just as a countertop material. Although it has long been a popular selection in this department, the Atlanta granite dealer says it also looks stunning as a backsplash in kitchens. Since this stone comes in a wide range of colors and patterns, homeowners essentially have an unlimited supply of ideas at their fingertips.

Being able to fully customize a space from top to bottom can be exciting and inspiring, especially when that room is your kitchen. The Atlanta countertop experts note that kitchens continue to rank at the top of the list for residential remodeling projects for many reasons. This is mainly because they are key selling points in the real estate market and also where people spend a lot of their time cooking and cleaning. This is why stone is so sought after in comparison to laminate. What a lot of people do not know, though, is that spreading the flow of granite up the wall is a brilliant choice.

According to Dara Summers, Vice President of Sales and Marketing for Premier Surfaces, "There is no doubting the beauty of granite, so there is no reason why you shouldn't consider it as a backsplash material. It can be used in conjunction with another stone or installed as one slab."

As experts in granite countertops in Atlanta, Premier Surfaces says you also get the added benefits of stain resistance and durability, which are the features granite is best known for.
