

BURBANK, CA, September 27, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Multi-platinum music producer, Andrew Lane, announced on his Facebook page that he is teamed up with the next Destiny's Child, a girl group called Pink Diamonds with Yvette Tario (Eve-E) and Kelsey Chao (Kacey). Lane describes the duo as "the epitome of explosiveness meets swag meets class....their sound is a mix between party anthems and dance and EDM." Pink Diamonds will officially release their debut single and accompanying music video to their original song entitled "Party Bus" at an event at The Celebrity Centre in Hollywood, California to be held on Thursday, September 26, 2013. Pink Diamonds will also perform a short concert and will be joined by Daniel Curtis Lee (Glee, Ned's Declassified, Zeke and Luther) with Colton B (Winner BET 106 N Park Wild Out) as the opening act.

The event will be attended by many celebrities who will walk the red carpet beginning at 6 p.m. Some of the celebrities will include:

Daniel Curtis Lee - Glee, Ned's Declassified, Zeke and Luther
Colton B (BET 106 N Park Wild Out, Hannah Montana, Cory In The House, America's Got Talent)
Jordyn Jones - Ultimate Dance Competition
Abby Lee Miller - Dance Moms
Carson Lueders - Internet singing sensation
Alex Dale - Up In Arms Teen Comedy
Luke Broyles - Up In Arms Teen Comedy

Pink Diamonds is an American pop female duo comprised of Kacey and Eve-E. The singing sensation was formed in 2012 under the original name "Perfect Strangers." In July 2012, the group released their debut, self-titled single "Perfect Strangers." The duo later changed the name to Pink Diamonds - the name reflective of how unique and rare their sound is in their music. Since then the two have performed live at several renowned venues including House of Blues, CBS Studios for the George Lopez Foundation and Children's Hospital Los Angeles Foundation "HOPE-A-Palooza 2013," as well as the Los Angeles Olympic Coliseum alongside Big Mike and BET Winner Colton B. Check out Pink Diamonds at <http://www.PinkDiamondsMusic.com>.

Andrew Lane, Drew Right Music CEO, is a multi-platinum and Billboard Music Award winning music producer. Lane has produced some of the biggest names in the music industry including Mary J. Blige, Keith Sweat, Backstreet Boys, and is currently working with the youngest Grammy winner Miguelito (Blast Music). Lane's songs have been included in many movie soundtracks including Disney's Hannah Montana, High School Musical and Bring It On - In It To Win It.