WAUKESHA, WI, September 27, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- GiftWorksPlus, the leader in custom frames and personalized gifts, is known not only for high-quality, affordable products for online shoppers but also as the provider of keepsake-quality custom souvenirs for companies and destinations across the country. Through its wholesale division, GiftWorksPlus holds contracts with many national parks, amusement parks, cities, cruise ships, campgrounds, and vacation locales as the producer and supplier of one-of-a-kind souvenirs.

Another expanding line of souvenir frames focuses on educational institutions. GiftWorksPlus currently offers a full line of engraved picture frames for high schools, colleges, and major universities. By the end of 2013, GiftWorksPlus is working to have every major university license in the country.

To view a selection of GiftWorksPlus custom souvenir frames, visit <http://www.GiftWorksPlus.com> and click on the "Destinations" tab. The frames for school photos may be viewed by clicking on the "School" tab. To learn more about partnering with GiftWorksPlus as a supplier of custom frame souvenirs, visit GiftWorksPlus.com or call 888-456-9878.

Based in the heart of the United States of America, GiftWorksPlus sources alder wood from the Pacific Northwest. That rich, natural, renewable resource is brought to the company's Waukesha, Wisconsin, facility. There, engraved frames, matted, and customized key rings are designed and created by master craftsmen who take pride in making unique, Made-in-America custom frames and picture gifts.

At GiftWorksPlus, every piece is truly one of a kind. Because natural materials are used, no two engraved frames are ever the same. Further, with free personalization as a standard service, GiftWorksPlus can customize each unique piece to customer specifications for orders large or small.

Wisconsin-based GiftWorksPlus offers an ever-increasing selection of engraved picture frames and picture gifts perfect for any occasion. Special requests and custom orders are always welcome, and customer satisfaction is guaranteed.
