

Interior Designers Recommend Eclipse Shutters' Plantation Shutters

Written by Australian Business

ATLANTA, GA, September 27, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- The secret is out: interior designers across the country have been recommending that their clients install custom fitted plantation shutters from Eclipse Shutters. These trendsetters understand that other window treatment options fall short when compared to the classic beauty and lasting value of interior shutters.

Many designers also insist on creating looks that will last the test of time, and indoor shutters fit that bill perfectly. They have been popular amongst the elite for centuries, first rising to popularity in the court of Louis XIV of France. Tastes have changed radically since then, but the timeless elegance of plantation shutters has melded and complement even the most radical of aesthetic choices.

In addition to being able to fit in with nearly any style of decor, plantation interior shutters from Eclipse Shutters offer designers durable window coverings that will age well with the home and its owners. Plantation shutters from Eclipse Shutters come with a 25-year warranty, a lifespan unmatched by any other covering.

The lasting beauty and durability of indoor shutters for windows also makes them an excellent selling point for future home buyers. Interior decorators understand that adding this value to their clients' homes greatly increases their satisfaction with their services and encourages repeat business.

"We feel honored that so many interior decorators and designers have chosen to feature our plantation shutters in their designs," says Shannon Hodges, Director of Marketing at Eclipse Shutters. "These designers appreciate the sturdy, classic appeal that our shutters provide to any living space, and they value our dedication to creating custom shutters for every home."
