ATLANTA, GA, September 28, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- The Comfort Inn & Conference Center Northeast, a leading north Atlanta hotel

near Doraville, GA, offers affordable lodging to craft vendors and guests attending fall festivals in the area. The Duluth Fall Festival will be held September 28-29, 2013 on the Village Green in historic downtown Duluth. More than 250 vendors from around the Southeast will offer their work, including paintings, pottery, photography, jewelry, home decor, baskets, bath products, clothing, toys, and holiday items. The festival features a parade on Saturday, a 5K road race on Sunday, carnival rides, and live entertainment all weekend. Admission is free. The Norcross Art Fest is scheduled for October 5-6 in downtown Norcross. Artists from all over the country will display fine arts and crafts. Shoppers can browse the paintings, photography, jewelry, mixed media, fiber, glass, clay, metalwork, woodwork, and folk art. 'Chairs for Charity', one-of-a-kind pieces decorated by local school art departments, will be auctioned by the Norcross Arts Alliance. There will be continuous entertainment all weekend and a Kids' Zone with children's activities. Festival admission is free.

"We are pleased to welcome craft vendors and guests attending fall festivals in the area," explains April Gipson, the Doraville hotel north's Director of Sales. "Our property is conveniently located just minutes from the Duluth and Norcross festival sites," continues Gipson. A top choice among other north Atlanta hotels, the Comfort Inn & Conference Center Northeast is located near the I-85 and I-285 interchange and offers 125 comfortable guest rooms.
