

Hampton Inn Gaffney SC Hotel Offers Affordable Lodging for Upstate Revolutionary War Weekend

Written by Australian Business

GAFFNEY, SC, September 28, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Hampton Inn Gaffney South Carolina Hotel offers affordable lodging to guests attending Upstate Revolutionary War Weekend October 4-7, 2013. A weekend of special events and festivals will take place at three historic sites in the Upstate of South Carolina. Family friendly activities are scheduled at Walnut Grove Plantation in Roebuck, Cowpens National Battlefield in Chesnee, and Kings Mountain National Military Park in Blacksburg. Living history interpreters will make the Revolutionary War era come alive as they lead lantern tours, demonstrate colonial era trades and crafts, put on an outdoor drama, and re-enactment skirmishes and battles. Overmountain Victory Trail marchers will join the festivities following a 330 mile march from Tennessee to Kings Mountain. All activities at Cowpens National Battlefield and Kings Mountain National Military Park are free. There is a charge for the lantern tour and festival at Walnut Grove Plantation.

"The Hampton Inn Gaffney is pleased to welcome guests attending the Upstate Revolutionary War Weekend festivities October 4-7," explains Shawn Lalli, General Manager at Hampton Inn Gaffney SC hotel. We are the perfect lodging choice, since we are conveniently located just minutes away from the festivities at Walnut Grove Plantation, Cowpens National Battlefield, and Kings Mountain National Military Park," says Lalli.
