Written by Australian Business

FORT WAYNE, IN, September 29, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- To help patients remain "in the know" with important dental health care information, Dr. Charles Middleton of Middleton Dentistry is pleased to offer a practice blog. BY visiting Middleton Family Dentistry's website at <http://www.middletondentistry.com/>, patients can gain instant access to the educational blog.

The blog for Middleton Family Dentistry was created to allow Dr. Charles Middleton, Dr. Mathew Middleton and Dr. Connie Shim Middleton to share important information with their patients. Whether they are including information on dental health care or updates on Middleton Family Dentistry, the practice blog allows these Fort Wayne dentists to share valuable information with their patients around the clock.

"We want to make sure each of our patients is knowledgeable in our practice and dental health care. The blog allows us to share this information easily with our patients so that they can remain up-to-date with important information," said Dr. Charles Middleton, a dentist in Fort Wayne.

Updates and dental health care information are updated regularly through the practice blog, which is directly linked to the practice's social network. Each time a new blog post is uploaded, patients who are "in the network" will receive instant updates each time they log into Facebook or Twitter. By maintaining a well rounded social network, Middleton Family Dentistry hopes that patients will always remain updated on important dental information.
