Written by Australian Business

DOTHAN, AL, September 29, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- The pediatricians in Dothan at Southeastern Pediatric Associates, PA are committed to ensuring parents understand their child's health. To help parents remain "in the know" with important information about their children, Southeastern Pediatric Associates offers a "What's New?" section on their interactive website.

This section allows Drs. Ted Williams, Craig Adams, Claude T. Ashley, Jr., Angela S. Blaxton, Sarah Germanson, Lauren K. Morris, John E. Searcy, Risha K. Gatlin, and Darrell W. Carpenter, Dothan, AL pediatricians, to share valuable information for parents. From product recalls to traveling with children, this interactive section of the practice's website helps parents better care for their children no matter where they are.

"We want to make sure parents understand their child's health, as well as the risks of products and other topics. Through the 'What's New' section we hope that parents will check in weekly or monthly to remain update on various information regarding their children's health," said Dr. Ted Williams, a Dothan pediatrician at Southeastern Pediatric Associates, PA.

Southeastern Pediatric Associates, PA believes that children come first and the pediatricians in Dothan, AL work together with their patients to provide exceptional medical care.
