Written by Australian Business

COOPER CITY, FL, September 29, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Dr. May Yazji-Corey, a dentist near Pembroke Pines, further expands the availability of dental health care information and communication efforts through the launch of his new social network. By launching Facebook and Twitter, Dr. Yazji-Corey of Miracle Dental Center hopes to open up new avenues for communication with the ability to share important dental health care information with his patients.

Patients can easily access the practice's new Facebook and Twitter pages through the homepage of Miracle Dental Center's interactive website. By "Liking" or "Following" the practice on Facebook and Twitter, patients will gain instant access to a wealth of information provided by Dr. May Yazji-Corey, a Pembroke Pines area dentist. Once a patient is "in the network," they will receive updates whenever Dr. Yazji-Corey includes more information or upcoming special events.

"Creating a social network for my practice has allowed me to open up new ways to communicate and share important information with my patients. If I have an announcement to make, Facebook and Twitter allow me to share the information immediately with my patients. I look forward to closely interacting with my patients and providing them with valuable dental information on a regular basis," said Dr. May Yazji-Corey, a Pembroke Pines, FL area dentist.

In addition to the practice's new social network, patients can also visit the practice's website for extended dental health care information through improved educational materials. Through his website, Dr. May Yazji-Corey, a dentist near Pembroke Pines, FL, offers his patients a wealth of materials and links to further learn about important dental topics including pediatric dentistry, implants and cosmetic dentistry, among others.

When patients visit the website for Miracle Dental Center, they can instantly access a host of important dental health care information. From dental health guides, to an educational newsletter and videos, Dr. Yazji-Corey's educational website offers patients a way to access information on dental topics they desire to learn more about at any time of the day or week.

May Yazji-Corey and Dr. Dora Rodriguez. Dr. Yazji-Corey graduated from Nova Southeastern University in 2004, and was immediately in a very select and unique position. For many classmates, it was their first introduction to life as a Doctor of Dental Medicine, while for a select few it was their second dental degree, having graduated and been licensed in another country. But for Dr. Yazji-Corey, it was her third dental degree, in her third country. In addition to being licensed in three different countries, Dr. Yazji-Corey is now licensed in more than thirty states. She brings a multitude of experience, having practiced for more than twenty years, combined with knowledge of cutting edge technology, from her recent tenure at Nova Southeastern University. At Miracle Dental Center, Dr. Yazji-Corey has assembled some of the top specialists in South Florida. Working alongside her is Dr. Dora Rodriguez, who earned her DDS degree in 1987 and her Certificate in Pediatric Dentistry from the Goldman Postgraduate School of Dentistry in 1990. She was also an Assistant Professor in Pediatric and Special Care Dentistry at the National University and Colombian School of Medicine. She returned to school in the United States to earn a D.M.D. in 2004 from the Nova Southeastern University College of Dental Medicine and is licensed to practice dentistry in Florida and Washington, D.C.
