

Kathryn Dueck Inducted into Worldwide Who's Who for Excellence in Art Framing

Written by Australian Business

SASKATOON, SASKATCHEWAN, CANADA, September 30, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Kathryn Dueck, Owner of the James Art Studio, has been recognized by Worldwide Who's Who for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in art framing.

Ms. Dueck has five years of experience as the owner of the James Art Studio. Over the years, she has established herself as an expert in framing for needlework, artwork, and memorabilia. The James Art Studio is a conservation framing and art placement studio that provides framing and consultation services. When making house calls, Ms. Dueck always carries a complete lineup of mats and frame samples to see what would suit the artwork and enhance the surrounding decor. She is known for her creativeness, honesty and integrity.

A passionate artist at heart, Ms. Dueck attributes her success to her creativity. She became involved in her profession because she had worked for James Art 25 years ago, so when it was put up for sale, she simply had to purchase it. There are so many ways that she can grow this business; she feels that it is a wonderful business, as she gets to deal with new things every day. It is inspiring and exciting for her to be able to frame things that are important for others, and see how excited they are about the finished product. She is very passionate about the industry.

Ms. Dueck is a certified picture framer. She is a member of the Canadian West Chapter of PPFA. In her spare time, she enjoys reading, hiking, walking, and visiting her special retreat at the lake, where she enjoys fishing.
