

WILLOW GROVE, PA, October 1, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Bruce Jones Jr., President of Legacy IFS, Inc., has been recognized by Worldwide Who's Who for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in customer service.

Mr. Jones has recently become the President of Legacy Insurance & Financial Services Inc. As an expert in customer service, he provides clients with the best insurance coverage for their needs. Although Mr. Jones attributes his success to his personal drive, he became involved in his profession largely because his father is involved in the insurance industry. As an independent insurance agent who represents numerous insurance companies, Mr. Jones ensures that each client receives the best value for their money. He considers himself to be an asset protection specialist, and his insurance policies provide much-needed peace of mind for the policyholders. As an example, Mr. Jones cites an instance when a client came to his office and thanked him for insisting that her husband, who had recently passed away, purchase life insurance. Thanks to Mr. Jones' tenacity, the client, though still bereaved, did not have to worry about funeral expenses or college for her children. This experience showed Mr. Jones that being an insurance agent can positively affect families in their day-to-day lives.

Mr. Jones received a Bachelor of Arts in history from Kent State University. He is a member of Pennsylvania Insurance Alliance. In his spare time, he enjoys coaching wrestling, wrestlers in business, watching his daughter play volleyball, his son play soccer and basketball and following various sports, particularly. He is also passionate about spending time with his family. In years to come, Mr. Jones Jr. intends to have satellite offices in different counties.

Legacy IFS is an insurance and financial services company that provides automobile, homeowners, business and life insurance. For more information about Legacy IFS, visit <http://www.legacy-ifs.com>
