Written by Australian Business

OLYMPIA, WA, October 1, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Robert Cassidy, President and Chief Executive Officer of Most Excellent Prince Hall Grand Chapter of Holy Royal Arch Masons, has been recognized by Worldwide Who's Who for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in his philanthropic pursuits.

A dedicated philanthropist, Mr. Cassidy has 19 years of professional experience, with eight years as the president and CEO of the Most Excellent Prince Hall Grand Chapter of Holy Royal Arch Masons. In the course of his duties, he is responsible for acquiring sponsors and donations for the scholarship drive, as well as trying to raise revenue for the organization. He frequently works to provide scholarships to deserving college students, as well as financial assistance to the less fortunate individuals who are struggling financially and need assistance to get back on their feet.

Mr. Cassidy is a retired sergeant major of the United States Army with 26 years of active service experience serving every rank of leadership. He joined the military in 1983, and has been awarded the Legion of Merit, five Meritorious Services Medals, eight Army Accommodation Medals, six Army Achievement Medals, and other prestigious awards and recommendations. He attributes his success to the military, and his family. Mr. Cassidy studied human relations and business administration at Saint Leo University. He is a member of the Sergeant Majors Association. In years to come, Mr. Cassidy wants to establish a shelter for the homeless, open a food bank and continue to award scholarships to deserving students.
