

SAVANNAH, GA, October 01, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Cash-n-Carry Motors has announced a raffle drawing on October 4th to aid the Savannah chapter of AMBUCS, a service organization that helps the disabled.

The drawing, for a 2002 Jeep Liberty , will be held at 7 pm on the 4th at Coach's Corner in Savannah, Georgia, and raffle tickets are $50 each. Local Savannah celebrities will help with this charity event. They include Bill Edwards, local radio personality; Stratton Leopold, local businessman; John Henderson, local businessman; Ruel Joyner, local businessman; and Marjorie Young, local businesswoman.

The raffle will help support the 2nd Annual Bowlapalooza being sponsored by AMBUCS on October 12th at Savannah Lanes on Tibet Avenue in Savannah. Thirty local celebrities are taking part in that event, held from 9:30 am to 12 pm, with all proceeds going to this worthy cause.

AMBUCS is a nationwide service organization consisting of men and women who are dedicated to helping those with disabilities gain mobility and independence. They provide services, donate therapeutic tricycles, and award scholarships for therapy students, and there are currently 5,500 AMBUCS members in more than 30 chapters in over 30 states.

Kenny Grainger, owner of Cash-n-Carry Motors, says he and his employees are delighted to take part in this wonderful event. "The Grainger family and Cash-n-Carry are excited about this great event. Over the years we have supported many charitable organizations . It is our way of giving back to a community that has been so good to our family and our employees. We believe strongly in community support, and we hope the community of Savannah embraces this cause with gusto as we are."

The 2002 Jeep Liberty being raffled off is a limited edition with a 3.7-liter engine. It has a blue metallic exterior and is loaded with power accessories, a factory CD player and cruise control. This is the perfect vehicle for those who love off-road adventure.
