

Jonathan B. Smith Earns Certified EOS Implementer Designation

Written by Australian Business

ARLINGTON, VA, October 02, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Jonathan B. Smith has earned the designation of Certified EOS Implementer of the Entrepreneurial Operating System (EOS).

A Certified EOS Implementer is an experienced entrepreneur who consistently displays the EOS Worldwide core values. They are an involved member of the EOS Implementer Base Camp, and have completed our intense 3-Day Training for Professional Implementers. At any given time a Certified EOS Implementer is actively implementing EOS with a minimum of 5 clients and their clients rate them above an 8.75 (on a scale of 1 - 10) for the results they help their clients achieve. Certified EOS Implementers sharpen their skills by regularly participating in weekly and quarterly collaborative meetings with other Certified & Professional Implementers.

He is one of only 50 EOS Implementers in North America. His practice is focused on the Washington DC and New York / New Jersey metropolitan areas.

EOS is a powerful system that takes a holistic self-sustaining approach to building a great company. It helps a business owner get the most out of their business. EOS Worldwide has delivered over 4,000 full-day sessions for more than 600 companies.

EOS Client Testimonial

"The EOS program is easy to understand. There are some very simple instructions to follow. There is a rhythm to what we do and it is changing our business and our future."
