

BALTIMORE, MD, October 02, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- On Monday, October 7, 2013, TargetGov and bwtech@UMBC are presenting a free Happy Hour to celebrate recent class series completion and announce the new 2013-2014 series of classes offered by the Government Contracting Institute. The Happy Hour will take place at the bwtech@UMBC Cyber Incubator, 5520 Research Park Drive, Baltimore, MD 21228 from 5:30pm - 7:30pm ET. This complimentary event is sponsored by Whiteford Taylor & Preston, LLP.

This complimentary Happy Hour brings together past attendees, instructors, and professionals interested in Government Contracting. This is a no-cost opportunity for all attendees to meet the experts in the government contracting marketplace and other interested business people.

Whiteford, Taylor & Preston, LLP is sponsoring the Happy Hour and the firm also provided experts for the Government Contracting Institute's "Clarifying Legal Requirements" course. The course was a success and represents just some of the experts who will attend the Happy Hour.

All attendees will be entered into a drawing where over $1,000 of prizes will be given out to randomly drawn tickets. Winners must be present at the drawing.

With the start of the new government fiscal year on October first, this is the perfect opportunity for businesses to take courses and gain new insights into the Federal Government Marketplace.
