

ATLANTA, GA, October 02, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- The Hilton Garden Inn Atlanta Airport Hotel

North offers convenient lodging to fans and alumni attending 2013 Georgia Tech home football games in downtown Atlanta. The Yellow Jackets are off to a great start, winning their first three games of the season. On October 19 Tech will face ACC opponent Syracuse. November 2 is Homecoming, and new ACC member Pittsburgh will be in town. Homecoming festivities will include the Ramblin' Wreck Parade, Alumni Tailgate Party, and class reunions. The Yellow Jackets will host Alabama A&M on November 23. The final home game of the season will be against in-state rival Georgia on November 30.

"We are pleased to provide affordable accommodations to alumni and fans attending 2013 Georgia Tech home football games," explains Anil Patel, the Hilton Garden Inn ATL Airport hotel's General Manager. "Our hotel near Atlanta International Airport provides complimentary shuttle service to Atlanta Hartsfield-Jackson International Airport and MARTA transportation, both only a mile away. Tech fans can use MARTA to get to the stadium, making our Hartsfield hotel a convenient choice for lodging," says Patel.

A leading choice among other Atlanta Airport hotels, the Hilton Garden Inn features the Garden Sleep System Bedding. Guests will enjoy free High-speed Internet access in every room, a 24-hour business center, fitness center, heated indoor pool, and a cooked to order breakfast, lunch, or dinner in the Great American Grill Restaurant. The hotel provides an Airport Flight Board, displaying real time flight information in the lobby.
