MEMPHIS, TN, October 02, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Vital Records Control, a national information/records management company, is thrilled to celebrate 25 years of Information Management in the Electronic Age. The company plans to celebrate its accomplishments with their clients, at this year's ARMA in Las Vegas 2013! ARMA International is the most comprehensive, educational and networking experience in information governance and this year's expo is set to take place in Vegas, Monday, October 28 - Wednesday, October 30, 2013.

VRC will be kicking off its 25th Anniversary VEGAS Style, with a $25000 Giveaway Contest!! In Fact, 400 lucky people attending ARMA 2013 will have the chance to win this incredible prize.

"We are extremely proud to be entering 25 years of records and document storage to thousands of happy clients," states Danny Palo, Chief Operating Officer of Vital Records Control. However, we realize our ongoing success stems directly from our fantastic customer base, that's supported us over the years. This contest is one way for us to show our appreciation, and what better place to do so than in Vegas!" says Danny.

Don't miss Vital Records Control at this year's ARMA in Las Vegas for all the details on how to enter.
