Duraskirt's Exclusive "Hidden-Vent" System

Duraskirt Mobile Home Skirting "A Concrete Solution for Life"

MOUNT VERNON, WA, October 02, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Creative Concrete Products LLC, the leading mobile home skirting in Northwest is introducing the latest innovative vent system for mobile home skirting, the "Hidden Vent System". Hidden Vent System is an exclusive product of Creative Concrete Products LLC that gives the manufactured home or mobile home a neat appearance. The makers of the Duraskirt, a popular product for home skirting reveal that the product is durable, strong and comes in a Northwest Aggregate or Traditional Smooth finishes.

A home that has Hidden Vent System installed has a proper flow of air and ventilation and vents the crawl space perfectly. The vent system greatly improves your home's exterior giving the house a durable and attractive look. With the new vent system there will be no problems, you will not have vent wells to maintain around your houses, there will be no dead air space or back-fill restrictions. The most horrifying and greatest nuisance which many dread is large animals like raccoons or opossums pushing through the foundation vents, with the Hidden Vent System this will be a thing of the past. With this vent system no more rodents and rats trying to squeeze into your house and destroying your important documents.

The product comes with a mobile home skirting kit and a manual which clearly illustrate how to install the vents. Hidden Vents are easy to install, it meets the "do-It- Yourself" criteria. The product has been developed with the homeowner in mind, it is durable, easy to manage and strong. It is a product which every mobile home owner should consider installing to give the house the kind of look that makes others green with envy.
