

Announcing the Launch of RESEARCHconnect

Written by Australian Business

MANCHESTER, ENGLAND, October 03, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- RESEARCHconnect is the latest funding solution from Idox Information Solutions, Europe's leading provider of grants and policy information.

The service provides access to thousands of funding opportunities, dedicated to the UK research community and covers a breadth of funders including all major international initiatives, as well as national and regional opportunities from Government, Research Councils, Membership Societies and much more.

Focused on researchers at all levels of academia and also including a spectrum of funding opportunities for universities and research institutes, the service offers a comprehensive one-stop-shop of research funding information, making it easy for users to find funding to support their research projects.

Such funding can be used to support an array of research activities including research and development, capital equipment, international collaboration, public engagement, training and career development, overseas travel and so much more...

Just some of the key features and benefits of RESEARCHconnect include:

- Being backed by over 25 years' funding experience and a team of dedicated, qualified researchers.
- Advanced search capabilities, making it easy for users to find suitable funding opportunities.
- Real-time updating - as soon as we know about a new research funding opportunity, so do our users.
- Focused search criteria according to applicants, research disciplines, locations and purposes.
