DAYTON, OH, October 03, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- American Way Van & Storage, a National Van Lines independent agent in Ohio, is proud to announce the launch of their new website, designed and developed by Advice Interactive Group, an Inc. 500 Internet marketing company in Dallas.

The new website has a distinct national design and is decked out in the company's colors of red, white, and blue. Website visitors are able to read about all of the company's offerings, including about their services, their movers and team, and past customer reviews. The company also offers moving tips and resources for homeowners looking to make their next relocation as smooth as possible.

American Way has always been a staple in the local Dayton community for its positive reputation and its involvement in local and national non-profit organizations. The new website build emphasizes this activity with information about the company's two charities of choice: the Wyland Foundation and Move for Hunger.

American Way is a true one-stop shop for moving service and supplies, and this new website binds together the company's stellar local reputation with a professional site dedicated to customer satisfaction.
