WEST ORANGE, NJ, October 03, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Dov Rand MD is a board certified medical doctor who has specialized in anti-aging technology and age management therapy over the course of his decades-long career. Throughout his time living and working in the city of West Orange, New Jersey, Dov Rand MD has seen literally everything in the field of age management. As a result, Dov Rand MD is something of an expert in the field of anti-aging technology.

In fact, Dov Rand MD has recently launched an exciting product line geared at his patients of his private medical practice group. The comprehensive product line is designed to combat all areas and symptoms of aging, from hormonal issues to more traditional vitamin therapies.

Dov Rand MD explains: "We launched programs specializing in weight loss, bio-identical hormone replacement, vitamin therapy including IV vitamins, yolo fat burning procedure, Botox and Fillers for facial rejuvenation as well as functional medicine, food allergy programs, dysbiosis as well as gut health programs."

Dov Rand MD says that he is confident that the product lines will give his patients the added boost they need to deal with aging in a graceful manner. After all, Dov Rand MD explains, every person has the right to age as gracefully as they so desire, including looking and feeling as young as they possibly can.

In addition to the line of age management products, Dov Rand MD provides his patients with a veritable bevy of tips and advice to combat every level of aging, from weight gain to skin issues and other external signs of aging. Additionally, Dov Rand MD provides his patients with the advice they need to commence vital diet and exercise routines to maintain the youthful lifestyles that they are looking for.

"The majority of my patients are women in their forties and fifties who are trying to get a head start on successfully managing the aging process," Dov Rand MD told the press. "When they first come in to see me, they may look like they feel young, but the reality of the situation is that they feel older than they want to. So, as a board certified medical doctor, I do what I can to ensure that they can continue to look and feel as young as possible." Dov Rand MD went on to say, "This may mean something as simple as a new course of vitamins, or something as complex as a facial rejuvenation kit. Either way, I go out of my way to ensure that they feel as good as they possibly can."
