

The Woo Group Appoints New Board of Trustees Member

Written by Australian Business

HONG KONG, October 04, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- The Woo Group Board Chairman, Jon Woo, welcomed New Board of Trustees member Tamura Ichiro who is currently the Global Head of Research at The Woo Group. He oversees the development and implementation for all aspects of the company's research capabilities.

Tamura Ichiro will be indispensable asset to the The Woo Group board of Trustees, said Board Chairman, Jon Woo. "He has already proven his leadership abilities within the firm by heading an integral department of The Woo Group. During his time at our firm, he has worked tirelessly and made countless contributions. In his new position, I have the utmost confidence that he will excel and surpass even our highest expectations. I look forward to working more closely with him in the future."

Before assuming his role on the board, Tamura led research methodology programs, overseeing the development, establishment, and execution of a wide array of research practices and policies. He joined the company a year after its inception in, 2002; since then he has held numerous positions including non-executive board member, and an outside director, and managing director.

Prior to leading the research department, Tamura was a Senior Managing Director of Asset Management in Asia, where he oversaw diversified portfolios valuing over $50 million. After that he assumed the role of Non-Executive Director of Asian Equities research, where his leadership lead to a 20% increase in net revenue.

Tamura obtained his undergraduate degree from the University of Kyoto in Finance. He continued on to the American financial hub of New York to attend the Columbia University for his post graduate education where he received an MBA.

The Woo Group is privately owned and funded by the Woo family here in Hong Kong, we have no shareholders or investors.

The Woo Group was established in 2002 by the founding fathers Jon and Jason Woo, of the Hong Kong Woo family, whose enormous wealth and expertise in the financial industry ensured immediate success, which The Woo Group continues to enjoy today.

The Woo Group Appoints New Board of Trustees Member

Written by Australian Business

In its infancy The Woo Group employed only 15 members of staff, a number that has now grown to over 800 making The Woo Group the largest, not to mention most prestigious equity research house in Hong Kong.