

LAS CRUCES, NM, October 04, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- When choosing a new dentist, knowing his experience, both in his field and also his ability to relate to the community is important. Drs. Ramon and Natalie Ortiz of Painted Skies Dental Center are two dentists that love serving the Las Cruces, NM community and hope to do so together for many years to come.

Having a young vibrant dentist is often a significant advantage for patients. Younger dentists have fresh knowledge of innovations in the dental field and aren't limited by old beliefs regarding the ability to help patients save their teeth. Drs. Ramon and Natalie bring the Las Cruces community loads of insights into modern dental technology, including CEREC Crowns & Veneers, ZOOM. Whitening, Invisalign and dental implants.

Las Cruces (The City of the Crosses), the second largest city in New Mexico, is situated in the heart of the state. The city is known for its thriving arts and culture, including museums and festivals, as well as its diverse population. Now thanks to the Ortiz family, it is also known for its premier dentistry offerings. Las Cruces dentist Dr. Ramon and his wife, who met while they were both pursuing their dental degrees, are committed to continually providing area patients with the latest and greatest dental technology and services available.

"Two heads are definitely better than one," confirms Dr. Ortiz. "My wife and I are able to bring our combined education and experience to the table to ensure that our patients have the best experience possible."

Having a husband and wife team on staff also contributes to the strong family atmosphere at their office in Las Cruces. They have similar ideals, wanting to be of service to their community. Both are committed to continuing their education in the dental field and believe in the idea that it is important to "give back to the community and be active in the betterment of society."

For a qualified family dentist Las Cruces residents have not one but two first rate choices at Painted Skies Dental. Patients in need of dental help are encouraged to visit <http://www.paintedskiesdental.com> and choose the "Appointment Request" button to get started.
