

GLENDAL, CA, October 04, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- With his convenient office location, Dr. Brad Aguirre, a Glendale, CA podiatrist, offers exceptional foot and ankle health care for his patients from surrounding communities. To further expand on his treatment and care offered at his Glendale location, Dr. Aguirre also provides patients with an advanced website that is home to a wealth of valuable podiatric educational tools.

"I want my patients to fully understand the importance of their foot and ankle health care and offering valuable educational tools on my website help me to do just that. We are always on our feet, but we often take the health of our feet for granted," said Dr. Brad Aguirre, a podiatrist in Glendale, CA.

By visiting the practice website for Dr. Aguirre patients will gain immediate insight into a host of important foot and ankle health care topics. From heel pain to fungal nails in Glendale, patients can find a wealth of information on the topic of their choice to further help them properly care for their aching feet.

"Sometimes when pain is experienced in our feet, we can ignore it thinking it will go away on its own. However, that is not always the case. For this reason I am pleased to offer important educational resources for my patients to better understand the importance of the health of their feet and ankles," said Dr. Aguirre.

The practice's website allows patients to view an array of educational videos that were created to offer an extended look at important foot and ankle health care topics. The educational videos offer a featured video each month in order to shift focus onto important topics that may often be overlooked.

By watching the videos, patients can better understand their condition or ways to prevent painful conditions from occurring. The education videos offer a closer look at Glendale, CA toe nail laser fungus removal, bunions, prevention of foot injuries, diabetes, plantar fasciitis, plantar warts, shoes, orthotics, and an array of other useful podiatric information.

Available 24/7, patients can search for more information on their ailments around the clock. Dr. Aguirre understands that questions do not stop when a patient leaves his office. So when the office is closed, patients can still find answers to some of their important questions even when the office is closed.
