

SAN ANTONIO, TX, October 05, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- CASTINGHUB member Desiree Coffey may be the next big thing in San Antonio, so be sure to be on the lookout for her. Having already starred in the pilot of the new show "The Single Wives Club", shown the world her moves in a music video for Louisiana Artist Blake in her new video for "Pretty Girl Swag", she now has landed a more serious role in the new short film "Eviction".

"Eviction" is the long worked for project of Sweat Productions and tells the story of 2 brothers, Michael and Jordan, who are down on their luck with money. The two brothers lost their mother as children and their father leaving soon after that. Michael, the older brother, has had to take care of them. When an eviction notice finally comes he decides to rob a bank and leave this type of life forever.

Desiree shows her true talent and range as she plays a young girl who is the unfortunate victim in this bank robbery. Desiree was in the middle of the movie at the climactic moment when tempers flare one brother decides to shoot her character. Before he does, the second brother shoots his own brother to save her.

Being featured so prominently in a movie is a testament to her skill and her dedication to the craft. Spending many hours working with Casting Hub and finding roles most suited to fit her that the commercial networking service features, Desiree knows that this is something that she wants to be doing for a long time to come.
