

Welcome to Medicare Madness: Seminar Helps Retirees Understand Medicare

Written by Australian Business

NAPLES, FL, October 05, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Medicare Specialist Helen Hreen will present "Welcome to Medicare Madness," a free seminar intended to educate retirees and near-retirees about Medicare, Medicare supplement plans and prescription drug plans.

The seminar will be held four times in October from 10 a.m. to noon at M Waterfront Grill in the Venetian Village, 4300 Gulf Shore Blvd. in Naples, Florida. Participants may choose between Friday, October 11; Wednesday, October 16; Friday, October 25; or Thursday, October 31. A complimentary luncheon will be served.

The seminar is appropriate for those who are new to Medicare, losing retiree benefits, or who are new to the area. Topics include how health reform affects Medicare, supplemental insurance options and drug plan options.

With more than 30 years of healthcare and insurance experience, Hreen is in a unique position as a Medicare Specialist to provide up-to-date information on all aspects of Medicare, offer comparisons, and assist seniors in choosing options that are right for them.

Seating is limited. For reservations, please contact (239) 384-7014.
