

PLG Consulting Announces Acquisition of Heislog LLC

Written by Australian Business

CHICAGO, IL, October 05, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- PLG Consulting, a boutique logistics, engineering and supply chain consulting firm, is pleased to announce that they have completed the acquisition of Heislog LLC, another boutique logistics consulting firm. Heislog LLC was owned by Gordon Heisler and served clients in a number of bulk markets. Mr. Heisler also had supported PLG on a number of consulting engagements over the past seven years and now will exclusively consult for PLG. Heislog clients are in the process of transitioning to PLG at this time. PLG Consulting President Taylor Robinson stated, "Heislog LLC has a tremendous reputation in the industry, and PLG Consulting is excited to serve these clients with our broad and experienced team. Gordon is a wealth of knowledge and wisdom especially in the unique world of chemical and petroleum logistics."

Gordon is an accomplished career logistics executive with over 35 years' experience in chemicals, biofuels, and petroleum distribution including extensive work in Crude by Rail. Gordon led the Sunoco Transportation team for the last 13 years of his corporate career. He has experience and expertise in logistics strategy development, business process improvement, extensive contract negotiations, and transportation due diligence assessment.

About PLG Consulting

PLG Consulting is a boutique consulting firm that provides strategic consulting services in Logistics, Engineering, and Supply Chain. Our real-world experience, strategic perspective, deep analytical capability, and hands-on approach to each client engagement enables clients to develop and implement efficient and cost-effective solutions that are integrated with, and support, their business objectives. PLG helps clients in a wide variety of industries including, energy, bulk commodities, manufacturing and private equity.