

FORT WORTH, TX, October 07, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Steve Daniel, author and illustrator, joins Progressive Rising Phoenix Press. His works include: "Do Turtles Have Talent?" endorsed by Winston Groom - Author of "Forrest Gump," who describes the book as "A wondrous treat for little inquiring minds!" "Cubby To The Rescue," a delightful tale about Cubby the airplane. Endorsed by Col. Robert K. "Bob" Morgan. Morgan was the Pilot of "The Memphis Belle." And "Follow Your Dream," endorsed by actress Elizabeth McRae. Daniels books are beautifully written and could be considered tools that teach children confidence. Steve also designed a refrigerator art coloring book that enhances The Cubby series. It is available on the publishers site.

Daniels has worked as a Technical Illustrator, a staff artist for the Air Force preparing illustration of top secret aircraft, as well as NASA spacecraft and other aviation art. He was the art director for the Medical University in Charleston, South Carolina, and built exhibits for three marine science museums. He continues to write and illustrate.
