

HOUSTON, TX, October 07, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- In 2013, nine attorneys of the Houston law firm of Abraham, Watkins, Nichols, Sorrels, Agosto & Friend were recognized for their commitment to excellence in the legal profession through selection to either the Super Lawyers or Rising Stars listings. Seven were named to the Super Lawyers listing as published in Texas Monthly magazine, a distinction reserved for only five percent of licensed attorneys practicing in the state of Texas.

For the first time, Houston personal injury attorneys Daniel D. Horowitz III, Muhammad Aziz, and Brant J. Stogner were selected for inclusion on the 2013 Super Lawyers listing. Joining them were Clyde (Jay) Jackson, III in his second year of selection; Benny Agosto, Jr. in his ninth year of selection and Nick Nichols and Randall Sorrels, both in their eleventh year of selection.

Firm partner Randall Sorrels was additionally recognized for his outstanding legal work on behalf of seriously injured individuals and surviving family members throughout Texas. Mr. Sorrels was named one of the Top 100 Texas Super Lawyers for the seventh year in a row and one of the Top 100 Houston Super Lawyers for the eighth.

The patented selection process used to identify attorneys selected for inclusion on the annual listing of Texas Super Lawyers includes peer nominations, third-party research, and a "blue ribbon review" process. The end result is a credible, comprehensive listing of the top five percent of attorneys in the state of Texas on which both the public and referring attorneys can rely in choosing legal counsel.

The Houston, Texas personal injury law firm of Abraham, Watkins, Nichols, Sorrels, Agosto & Friend is consistently represented on the annual listing of Texas Super Lawyers and congratulates the seven attorneys from the firm who have been named for inclusion in this year's listing.

Abraham Watkins was founded in 1951 and is Texas' oldest personal injury law firm. The team of attorneys at Abraham Watkins has advocated for the rights of thousands of catastrophically injured clients in cases involving car and truck accidents, work-related injuries, defective products, oil and gas accidents and other types of personal injury matters. To contact any of the personal injury lawyers at Abraham, Watkins, Nichols, Sorrels, Agosto & Friend, please email the firm or call 713-587-9668.