

Jeff Nourse of New You Spa Announces Excitement in New Venture

Written by Australian Business

TORONTO, ON, October 08, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Jeff Nourse of New You Spa is excited to announce the details of the plans that have led to his new medical spa chain known as "New You." Jeff Nourse of New You Spa has a great deal of experience in the fields of international retail as well as medical executive management. For over 20 years now, Jeff Nourse of New You Spa has been accumulating skills in operations, human resources, finance, retail chain management, and sales and marketing.

Jeff Nourse of New You Spa has created his new chain of high-end medical spas in North America, including the United States and Canada. As a well-known entrepreneur in these areas, he has spent over the last 15 years in the spa industry perfecting his skills in running a medical spa chain.

Jeff Nourse of New You Spa leads a team of sales consultants and spa managers. This allows him and his team to provide 5-star service to their client base that is grown by leaps and bounds each day. He is excited to be able to share his ideas, products, and services to his clients. This excitement is spread out to his employees, clients, and other contacts throughout the business sphere.

Jeff Nourse of New You Spa has an impressive resume in the spa industry. He has previous experience in developing and growing the largest medical spa chain in Canada and the U.S. He left the company in 2007, but is ready for bigger and better things today. Jeff Nourse of New You Spa is back to do it like he has never done it before. Jeff Nourse of New You Spa says, "I cannot express how excited I am about new medical spa. We are going to be doing things that are on the edge of the technological wonders we have at our disposal today. I have spent over 15 years in this industry, and I wanted to come back to test the limits of what I have learned so far."

Jeff Nourse of New You Spa continues, "I will be using new and proven technology such as Apple computers and iPads in my new medical spa facilities along with my staff of highly trained professionals. The combination of the technology and the talent that 'New You' has at its disposal will impress any of our clients as soon as they walk in our doors."

Jeff Nourse of New You Spa explains that all of the iPads located in the medical spas will be equipped with an app called the Clarity UV Visualizer. This incredible new program, offered in Canada originally by New You Spa, can analyze digital photos of clients' skin in order to highlight areas of the damaged skin. At that point, the staff at New You Spa can provide a personalized treatment plan to the client. This plan is then emailed to the clients for their records.
