MINNEAPOLIS, MN, October 08, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Jacquelyn Lutz joined Robichaud, Anderson, & Alcantara as an Associate attorney in August of 2013. As the needs of clients have demanded, Robichaud, Anderson, & Alcantara has expanded their services. Jacquelyn will be spearheading a Family Law practice as well as practicing Immigration and Personal Injury law.

Prior to coming to Robichaud, Anderson, & Alcantara , Jacquelyn worked in private firms, government service, and legal aid. Jacquelyn has a client-centered approach that is committed to making life transitions as smooth as possible.

Robichaud, Anderson & Alcantara is a seven-attorney law firm supported by a dedicated staff.

Clients are given the personal attention and services of a small firm while benefiting from the depth of legal experience and resources of a larger firm. Clients are seen as individuals, not simply numbers in a database. The firm's experienced attorneys and staff will work to alleviate the stress and worry that often accompanies legal problems, so clients can focus on returning to their normal lives.

If you have questions regarding family law, personal injury, workers' compensation or immigration matters, contact Robichaud Law at 800-836-6615 or complete our online contact form . Free consultations are available for personal injury and workers' compensation cases. For the convenience of our clients, we speak Spanish, Hmong, Vietnamese and Chinese. Interpretation services are available for other languages such as Karen and Somali.
