

ORLANDO, FL, October 08, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Orlando Eye Institute is more than happy to have their new and existing patients get to know co-founding doctor, Dr. Keshini Parbhu. Dr. Parbhu has years of experience and has established successful relationships among both peers and patients.

After graduating Summa Cum Laude from Duke University in North Carolina, she went on to obtain her medical residency from Vanderbilt University in Tennessee. These are incredible achievements in and of themselves, note the eye doctors in Orlando, but the factor that sets Dr. Parbhu apart from other doctors in the area is her specialty training in the field of ophthalmic plastic and reconstructive surgery.

Although the field of ophthalmology is growing quickly, there is still a shortage of specialized expertise. This is something Dr. Parbhu has demonstrated throughout her years of experience by being certified by the American Society of Ophthalmic Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery. There are less than 500 people in the country who have the honor of holding this title, and Dr. Parbhu is one of them.

The eye doctors in Orlando note that Dr. Parbhu frequently publishes articles in well-known academic journals. According to her, "I was very excited to start this practice with Dr. Raja. All of our staff is knowledgeable and passionate about what they do. I simply could not have asked for a better environment to help my patients."

Orlando Eye Institute is a leading provider of eyelid surgery in Orlando . To learn more about Dr. Parbhu and the services the clinic provides, please visit <http://eyesandlids.com/>
