

TIBURON, CA, February 1, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Elisabeth Ligia Thieriot, President of Lions Gate Corporation, has been recognized by Worldwide Who's Who for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in business development.

Passionate about seasonal living, Ms. Thieriot has come to understand the correlation between cyclical changes, circadian rhythms, and success. Seeking to teach others how to achieve a healthy lifestyle and beautiful skin, she authored "Be Fabulous at Any Age." The book educates readers on how to maximize their personal and professional potential through seasonal living. She seeks to bring awareness to a broader audience, teaching the importance of intentional thought in order to achieve objectives. Drawing on her philosophy that seasons affect health and emotional well-being, Ms. Thieriot provides readers with step-by-step solutions for achieving optimum performance in their lives. Inspired by her practices in seasonal rejuvenation, she recently created an age-defying skincare line called Replete.

In addition to her book and skincare line, Ms. Thieriot is a wildly successful business entrepreneur. For the past 11 years, she has served as president of Lions Gate Corporation. She is also president of R & E Productions, president and owner of Youth Voice LLC, president of InTouch Group, Incorporated, and president of World Wide Music. Through her many international endeavors, she offers services in business development, botanical skin care, publishing, and music production.

Naturally philanthropic, Ms. Thieriot has significantly contributed to a number of different charities. She is currently a charitable supporter of The Redwoods, Raphael House, Kids' Turn, Breast Cancer Emergency Fund, San Francisco Opera, The Marine Mammal Center, the Edgewood Foundation, and The Prince of Wales' Charitable Foundation. She also serves as a board member for the Saint Francis Hospital Foundation. With unwavering dedication to animal welfare, Mr. Thieriot is actively involved with the Animal Defense League, North Shore Animal League of America, Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, and Animal Wellness.

Ms. Thieriot holds a Bachelor of Arts from the Fashion Institute of Technology and a master's degree in broadcast journalism from the New York Institute of Technology. In 2002, Mayor Willie Brown declared April 12th as Elisabeth Thieriot Day in San Francisco, California. Ever eager to remain current in her field, Ms. Thieriot is a member of the Cosmetic Executive Women, National Italian American Foundation, National Organization for Women, The Commonwealth Club, and the National Association of Professional Women who named her Woman of the Year in 2010. She attributes her success to support from her family, social ethics, balance in her life, and an investment into her health and well-being.
