

ROME, ITALY, October 09, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Terravision, leader in airport transfer services in Europe is delighted to extend its array of products to now include city bus tours in the most spectacular cities around Europe. Thanks to its partnership with City Sightseeing, leading open top double-decker bus tour operator, Terravision will sell 119 new tours in 83 different destinations from the UK to Portugal to Russia.

Aboard the famous red double-decker buses, each city tour will navigate through the historic centre while providing a multi-lingual audio guide. Travellers can buy tour vouchers online and at all 39 Terravision sales desks situated throughout European airports, as well as at its Terracafè located at Victoria Station in London and at the arrivals hall in Stansted Airport.

"Terravision strives to offer our clients a convenient and quality service at the best price and our partnership with City Sightseeing echoes this mission" stated Fabio Petroni, President of Terravision Group.

With more than 100 operations worldwide, City Sightseeing allows tourists to discover the best a city has to offer and often includes extra services to complete the traveller's experience. A great example is the London city tour that also includes a free cruise pass on the Thames River. Many other promotions can be booked directly at Terravision's London Stansted airport desk while purchasing Terravision transfer tickets.

Terravision is a major player in the tourism transport sector offering shuttle services throughout 20 different European airports such as Italy (Milan Bergamo), the UK (London Stansted), the Netherlands (Eindhoven), Malta and Portugal (Porto). Founded in Rome in 2002, Terravision aims to provide a valuable and low cost service for airline passengers needing to reach the city and airport. Terravision has also expanded its product range to include numerous travel related services including its Terracafè lounge Bars, low cost airport car parking solutions, apartments available for rent in Madrid, a country estate in Tuscany and now city bus tours.
