

Model Diary Introduces Fashion Webtorials

Written by Australian Business

NEW YORK, NY, October 09, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Model Diary announces their introduction to bi-weekly fashion magazine style webtorials. Model Diary will begin its new section as a partnership with KS Styling Team while still allowing submissions from photographers and stylists.

Model-Diary.com gives an insider's look into the world of fashion, style, and beauty — specifically the models who make it happen. Model Diary's mission is to uncover the untold stories of models and the of their power in the fashion and beauty industries to sell product and make things happen. The fashion webtorials will further showcase working models as well as give emerging models a place to be seen.

The partnership with KS Styling Team will set the tone for the type of submissions that Model Diary will look for. "We want to see and publish the work of photographers, stylists and models that have fashion stories to tell," said Medel Dia founder of model-diary.com.

To submit fashion editorials to Model Diary, send email with low resolution photos to modeldiaryblog@gmail.com with full team credits (photographer, models & their agency, hair, makeup, wardrobe stylist, etc).

To learn more about Model Diary, visit model-diary.com

DW World Media, LLC is a communications firm with core competencies in public relations, focused on elevating its clients' brands, marketability and reach in media, entertainment and the arts. For more information, visit <http://www.dwworldmedia.com>.