

Classic Holidays' Gail O'Neill Nominated For Women In Business Award

Written by Australian Business

GOLD COAST, AUSTRALIA, October 12, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- A big congratulations goes to Gail O'Neill who has been nominated in the 2013 Gold Coast Women in Business Awards.

The longstanding Manager of Classic's Beach House Seaside Resort, Gail was nominated by Connecting Southern Gold Coast for the Business Achiever Award for her work with the Gold Coast Chamber of Commerce and Cooly Rocks On Festival.

As Chair of the Southern Gold Coast Chamber of Commerce since 2010, following 10 years on the Chamber Executive, Gail has also served as Vice-President of the Gold Coast Combined Chambers of Commerce for the past two years and sits on the Chamber of Commerce & Industry Queensland Regional Board (since 2010). Gail is also Chair of the annual Cooly Rocks On Festival which takes place in Coolangatta every June - the town's signature event and a key tourism and economic driver for the region.

"Classic Holidays is proud to call Gail one of our own; her enthusiasm and involvement in bettering the Southern Gold Coast business community, and the tourism industry in general, is remarkable," said Ms Smith.

"We wish her the best of luck in the Gold Coast Women in Business Awards."
