

SCOTLAND, UNITED KINGDOM, October 12, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Founded by Motion Placements Ltd, 'CityTravelReviews.co.uk' aim to offer fresh and unique opportunities to anyone between the ages of 18 and 30 looking for a gap placement or short sabbatical across Europe.

Each organised project has a clear objective and structured tasks to ensure that volunteers gain maximum experience and skills through an immersed approach, whilst also having an exciting and memorable visit. New visits for 2014 include a range of popular destinations including Barcelona, Berlin, Edinburgh, Madrid, Lyon and the latest addition of London.

CityTravelReviews.co.uk provides project members with a clear timetable of events, with an objective whilst on their project to collate information and work as a group in order to produce a city guide, aimed at other young travellers. These tasks include appealing activities such as visiting sites, taking photographs, learning about history and culture, reviewing cafe bars and finding out about the local language and customs. Within their project time, volunteers will also get the opportunity to work alongside design professionals to create the final eye-catching tourist guide.

Motion Placements Ltd allow their project provide their members with an effective platform from which to gain a multitude of skills and experiences - something which not only looks fantastic on a CV for prospective students, professionals and those who are seeking a change in career, but will also benefit members as unique life skills too. The placements also allow volunteers to mix with a variety of people with differing backgrounds, making it as socially rich as it is educational. In addition, being fully immersed in the culture of the project city provides an excellent opportunity to learn and develop a new language while exploring that languages culture.

Project members are recruited through the online application process and CityTravelReviews.co.uk are keen to attract candidates who show a drive and thirst for knowledge, are highly motivated and demonstrate the strong communication skills needed to work effectively in a team.
