

Punch TV Teams Up in Possible Preparation to Go Public

Written by Australian Business

LOS ANGELES, CA, October 13, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Marcum LLP has decided to represent Punch TV as Punch considers becoming a publicly traded company, and managing the rapid growth Punch TV Network is undergoing is left in their capable hands.

Marcum LLP, who has worked with multiple million dollar enterprises, has a 60 year history with an outstanding reputation at the national and regional levels. The firm is one of the largest independent public accounting and advisory service firms in the nation, with 1,200 professionals, including over 140 partners, in more than 20 offices throughout the world. Marcum offers an extensive range of professional services and a high degree of specialization. In addition to traditional accounting, assurance and tax, including domestic and international tax planning and preparation, the Firm's professional services include mergers and acquisition planning, family office services, forensic accounting, business valuation and litigation support.

Punch TV CEO Mr. Joseph Collins says, "We are absolutely thrilled to be joining with Marcum LLP. They understand our vision and are excited to help us reach our goals. With them on our side, Punch TV will soar to new heights in ways unimaginable to the public." As Punch considers becoming a publicly traded company, Mr. Collins will be raising one hundred million dollars to fund and launch his company within the stock exchange parameters.

Any viewer from the outside can see that Punch TV is gradually taking over the television broadcasting world in a way that has never before been attempted. The innovative ideas, passionate staff, and high tech capabilities are only a sign of what is soon to come out of this powerhouse. With Marcum LLP on the side of this evolving company, Punch will be able to take longer strides in the race to the top.