

SANTA CRUZ, CA, October 13, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- As a premier Santa Cruz dentist, Dr. John Baron strives to improve his patients' smiles through state-of-the-art dental care. To expand on procedures available at his dental office, Dr. Baron is pleased to announce the availability of CEREC same day crowns in Santa Cruz for enhanced dental procedures. CEREC is revolutionary to dentistry because it creates a beautiful, esthetic, strong and durable ceramic restoration that is precisely bonded to the tooth.

"With CEREC technology, we can achieve the benefits of both fillings and crowns in just one easy visit. I want my patients to feel comfortable and to receive the treatment they need without having to wait weeks between treatments for the finished product. I am pleased to be able to perform restorative treatments with ease through the use of CEREC," said Dr. John Baron, dentist in Santa Cruz, CA.

Crowns have often been used to restore decayed or broken down teeth for years. With the recent advancements in dentistry, CEREC has made this restoration even easier. By allowing crowns to be applied in one simple visit, patients can gain the confidence and smile they have been missing without multiple appointments.

Utilizing computer-aided technology, Dr. Baron, a dentist in Santa Cruz, can now take a picture of his patient's tooth before and during evaluation, eliminating the need for temporary crowns between procedures. The CEREC method eliminates temporary restorations, impressions, a second episode of numbing, and the typical two week wait for fitting of the final restoration. Additionally, CEREC allows for each restoration to be made and inserted in a single appointment.

In addition to gaining access to the latest dental technology and most gentle care, patients also have the added benefit of visiting the practice's educational website for more information on the staff, educational videos, a smile gallery and several other resources. Patients can even access the website to print and fill-out new patient forms, request an appointment or browse an extensive patient education library.

Offering services in most phases of dentistry including, dental implants, CEREC same day crowns, root canal therapy, and an array of other, Dr. John Baron brings quality and care to his dental practice. Patients looking for advanced dental care quality dental crowns turn to Dr. Baron for services they can trust. With the introduction of CEREC technologies at the practice's office, restorative procedures are performed easier than ever before in one simple visit.
