

Dentist In Columbus Accepts Tricare Health Plans

Written by Australian Business

COLUMBUS, GA, October 13, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- As a dentist in Columbus, Dr. Edward Smith strives to provide his patients with superior dental health care. To help his patients afford dental health care, Dr. Smith is pleased to accept patients in Columbus with Tricare health plans. Dr. Smith continues to accept Tricare health plans so that his patients can continue to receive the health care they need and deserve to maintain healthy, glowing smiles.

Tricare is managed by the Defense Health Agency (DHA) under the policy guidance and direction of the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Health Affairs)(ASD[HA]). As a major component of the Military Health System, the Tricare health program combines the health care resources at military hospitals and clinics with networks of civilian health care professionals, institutions, pharmacies and suppliers to provide access to high-quality health care services while maintaining the capability to support military organizations.

"Our military has done so much for our country, and it is important that we help them out when they are home. To help our military and their families, we are proud to accept Tricare health plans. With the Tricare health plan, my patients can receive treatment without having to pay immediately up-front. The plan allows them to make affordable payments each month," said Dr. Edward Smith about Tricare in Columbus, GA.

Additionally, patients can visit the website for Dr. Edward Smith and his practice for easy access to a vast educational library, equipped with educational videos for video stimulation. The dental education library contains valuable dental health care information for patients to navigate through when a question arises. From Columbus same day crowns to veneers and dental implants, patients can find all of the information they need to answer their dental health care questions.

Medicine from Nova Southeastern University's College of Dental Medicine in May of 2001, where he was inducted into Alpha Omega dental fraternity. He has equipped his office to provide some of the best high tech tools available today to offer an array of treatments, including same day crowns, veneers and dental implants, among others. His favorite new dental gadget is his CEREC crown-milling machine since it makes same-day permanent crown prep and delivery possible. Dr. Smith also believes a combination of continuing education and personal development coupled with the latest technology available is the best way to make his patients' experience and results the best.
