

Whitehead Monckton Partner Retires After 30 Years of Service

Written by Australian Business

KENT, ENGLAND, May 11, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Whitehead Monckton celebrate the retirement of Tim Monckton with over 150 of Tim Monckton's clients and professional colleagues who joined him to celebrate the retirement from Whitehead Monckton in Tenterden.

Tim Monckton has been a partner of Whitehead Monckton for thirty years and has contributed greatly to its growth and success. Tim has just overseen the move to the new Whitehead Monckton offices in the Market Square in Tenterden.

Since 1825, when John Monckton established Whitehead Monckton in Maidstone, there has been a Monckton amongst the partnership, which must be something of a record. The Firm has since expanded to 3 offices providing Canterbury Solicitors and Tenterden Solicitors.

The Firm are sorry to see Tim retire, but are delighted he will be maintaining his links with them as a Consultant. So rest assured for clients, Tim Monckton will continue to offer his excellent client care and wise counsel to support the team at Tenterden in Kent, led by Andrea Houston as it moves forward.

Whitehead Monckton is a leading law firm in Kent and prides themselves on their friendly approach and strong focus on building trusting relationships with clients in all matters.

The law firm offers legal services to both individual and business clients with expert solicitors in family law, employment, estate, conveyancing and experienced Will solicitors in Maidstone , Canterbury and Tenterden.

For more information visit the Whitehead Monckton website .

Whitehead Monckton has three offices in Kent providing leading solicitors in Maidstone, Canterbury and Tenterden. For more information visit the website.